

APPENDIX OF BART DURHAM

TO APPLICATION FOR NOMINATION AS JUDGE OF THE CRIMINAL COURT OF APPEALS

Question No. 23: Miscellaneous honors, letters of commendation, programs and other forms of recognition

Question 23. Miscellaneous honors, letters of commendation, programs and other forms of recognition.

Appointed Assistant U.S. Attorney General of Tennessee in October, 1969

Elected a member of the Quarterly County Court of Lauderdale City in the August, 1966, general election.

Commended by Judge Robert K. Dwyer of Court of Criminal Appeals, Jackson, Tennessee, for position in case of Denver D. Burlison v. State, 1972.

Commended by Commissioner Fred E. Friend, Dept. of Public Welfare, State of Tennessee, for effective and thorough cooperation

Commended by Judge Robert K. Dwyer, Court of Criminal Appeals, State of Tennessee, for successful handling of the case of James Earl Ray v. Gerold Frank, Doubleday Publishing Company, Phil M. Canale and Robert K. Dwyer No. C-74-126.

Commended by Tom E. Fox, former Deputy Atty. General, for handling of the music piracy lawsuit case of National Custom Tape Service, Inc.

Speaker at Seminar held by Criminal Law Section of the Memphis and Shelby County Bar Association, 1975

Judge, Moot Court Program, Advanced Appellate Argument Program, Vanderbilt University Law School, 1974

Panelist, 14th Annual Convention of the District Attorneys General Conference, Nashville, June, 1974

Commended by Andrew P. Miller, Attorney General of Commonwealth of Virginia, as panelist in 27th Southern Regional Conference of Attorneys General at Williamsburg, Virginia, in program on Panel: "The Right to Treatment -- the Obligations of the States in Areas of Mental Health and Corrections," May, 1974.

Panelist, "Recent Case Law Developments," Annual Meeting of Tennessee District Attorneys General Conference, June, 1974

Commended by H. Kenneth Deatherage, District Atty. Gen., Fourth Judicial Circuit Tennessee, for argument

Commended by Thomas E. Fox, Franklin, Tennessee, for excellence of preparation in case of Biggers v. State, U. S. Supreme Court

(cont.)

APPENDIX OF BART DURHAM, Question 23, page 2

Commended by William S. Russell, Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, Nashville, for excellence of preparation in Recor case

Commended by A. P. Torrence, President, Tennessee State University, Nashville, for effectiveness of defense

Commended by John L. Williams, District Atty. Gen., 22nd Judicial Circuit of Tennessee, Huntingdon, Tennessee, for fine representation in behalf of law enforcement (Re: Hilliard v. Williams, et al, 1971)

Cited by Judge Robert S. Brady, Circuit Court, Seventh Judicial Circuit, McMinnville, Tn., for assistance in case of Wood v. The Circuit Court, et al, Civil No. 1059, 1971

Letter of commendation from Lt. Governor John S. Wilder, March, 1973

Guest Lecturer, Prof. Junius Allison's legal clinic class at Vanderbilt University Law School in 1975

Guest Lecturer, Prof. Frederick LeClercq's legal clinic class, University of Tennessee Law School, 1975